

Niagara University
College of Education
Department of Educational Leadership and Counseling

A. Course Number and Title

EDU 639 – Seminar/Issues in Educational Leadership

B. Number of Credits

Three (3) Credit Hours

C. Course Description

This course provides a seminar study for candidates seeking certification as school building or school district leader in New York State. The seminar will focus on a single concept in leadership which is current in the field and not addressed in depth in other Educational Leadership courses. The topic of the seminar will be determined by the Educational Leadership Department.

A suggested list of possible seminar topics is: No Child Left Behind Legislation; School and District Public Relations; Management of Time and Resources for school administrators.

D. Method of Teaching

This course is framed within a constructivist perspective that embraces the belief that knowledge is socially constructed. Learning is viewed as a developmental process that is enhanced when candidates learn to view problems and issues from multiple perspectives, constructing knowledge from their own interpretations of numerous pieces of evidence. Teaching approaches are directed toward open ended inquiry, critical thinking and reflection and social interaction. Instructional methods may include group discussion, individual and cooperative activities, presentations by instructors and classmates, internet and library searches, instructional video, field experiences and research. On-line activities will be included.

E. Philosophical Framework

The philosophical framework of the program includes the following:

Note: Standards and characteristics will be contingent on the topic used for the seminar course.

ELCC STANDARDS

J. Attendance

Attendance is considered an indication of professional commitment and responsibility. Candidates are expected to attend all classes. The course work involves learning from many sources. You learn from your instructor. You learn from assigned readings, class activities and writing assignments. In addition you learn from your classmates. Interactions with classmates and the instructor provide different experiences and perceptions on course content. To that end, you cannot interact with classmates or the instructor if you are not here. Points will be subtracted for classes missed.

K. Grading

Final grade will be based on the following criteria:

Points are based on a total possible of 100 points. All class assignments that meet the requirements will receive 80% of total points assigned. To receive an “A” you must demonstrate that your work is exemplary (A level work). Any work turned in prior to the end of the course that is less than “B” or 80% may be rewritten once.

POINTS AND GRADE DISTRIBUTION
Points	Grade
95 - 99	A+
90 – 94	A
85 – 89	B+
80 – 84	B

Academic Honesty

The integrity of an academic community necessitates the full and correct citation of ideas, methodologies, and research findings. In addition, each student can promote academic honesty by protecting his or her work from inappropriate use. Academic honesty is essential to ensure the validity of the grading system and to maintain a high standard of academic excellence. The principal violations of academic honesty are cheating and plagiarism.

Cheating includes the unauthorized use of certain materials, information, or devices in writing examinations, or in preparing papers or other assignments. Any student who aids another student in such dishonesty is also guilty of cheating. Other possible forms of cheating include submitting the same work in more than one class without permission

Plagiarism is the presentation of ideas, words, and opinions of someone else as one’s own work. Paraphrased material, even if rendered in the student’s own words, must be attributed to the originator of the thought.

Please refer to the undergraduate catalogue for Niagara University’s policy on cheating, plagiarism, procedures and penalties.

Students with Disabilities

Students with documented disabilities who may need accommodations, who have any emergency medical information the instructor should know of or who need special arrangements in the event of an evacuation, should make an appointment with the instructor as early as possible in the semester, preferably no later than the first week of the semester. Students must also register with Diane Stoelting, Coordinator of Specialized Support Services (286-8076, ds@niagara.edu) in order to facilitate the provision of needed accommodations.

Counseling Services and Academic Support

The strains and workload of student life can sometimes feel overwhelming and it is easy to lose perspective when faced with academic, social, and personal demands. The staff of the office of counseling services in the lower level of Seton Hall and the Academic Support staff in the Learning Center in Seton Hall are here to help students manage the stresses of university life. All private consultations are confidential and free of charge. Appointment can be scheduled by calling 286-8536 (Counseling) or 286-8072 (Office of Academic Support).
