Tourism Cares Announces 2011 Academic Scholarship Offerings

Non-profit continues its commitment to educating future leaders of the travel industry

Canton, MA (February 28, 2011) - Tourism Cares is pleased to announce the opening of its 2011 Academic Scholarship offerings for students of travel- and-tourism or hospitality-related programs of study. The current endowment Tourism Cares manages, which includes the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA), International Airlines Travel Agent Network (IATAN), and NTA Scholarship Funds, totals nearly $2 million. This year 62 Academic Scholarships are being offered, ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 and totaling more than $88,000.

Undergraduate level and graduate level students, who will be enrolled in school fall semester, may now apply for these merit-based scholarships through the Tourism Cares website, <http://www.tourismcares.org/scholarships>, which links to the Tourism Cares on-line Academic Scholarship application. Both the website and the on-line application provide Academic Scholarship eligibility criteria and required documents. The application deadline for the Tourism Cares Academic Scholarships is Friday, April 1, 2011 at 5:00 pm Eastern time. Academic scholarship recipients will be announced late May.

The Tourism Cares scholarship awards help support the education of the future workforce of the travel, tourism, and hospitality industry, which is vitally important to maintain its high level of professionalism. All academic scholarship recipients are invited to participate in the Tourism Cares Experience the Industry Student Program at NTA's Convention to be held during the week of December 5, 2011 in Las Vegas, Nevada. At the event, students shadow travel industry mentors during business appointments; participate in discussions about career paths; and take advantage of networking and learning opportunities.

Justin Wusinich, of Temple University's School of Tourism & Hospitality Management, and winner of the 2010 NTA Dave Herren Memorial Scholarship, was one of the students who participated in the Tourism Cares Experience the Industry Student Program last fall at the NTA Convention in Montreal, Canada. He wrote "Thank you again for the opportunity to attend the NTA Convention. This was a major stepping stone in pursuing my future career. I had a great time and loved seeing Montreal and traveling to Canada for the first time. I took much from the people I met and the network I built. I have followed up with all of my contacts and hope to stay in touch with them in addition to Tourism Cares during my career.”

Tourism Cares will open the 2012 Professional Development Scholarship offerings on April 15, 2012. Application will be on-line only and the application deadline will be June 1, 2012 at 5:00 pm Eastern time.

Tourism Cares is a non-profit public charity whose mission is to preserve the travel experience for future generations. It accomplishes this by mobilizing the travel and tourism industry and travelers to give back to society through grants to natural, cultural and historical sites throughout the world; through academic and professional development scholarships for students of hospitality, travel and tourism; and through the organization of volunteer efforts to clean up and restore tourism-related sites in need of care and rejuvenation. For more information about Tourism Cares, please visit www.TourismCares.org.
