

Niagara University
Minor in Fraud Examination and Economic Crime

Introduction

The minor in is an interdisciplinary program involving the collaborative efforts of the departments of Accounting, Computer & Information Sciences, and Criminal Justice.

Objective

The objective of the minor is to introduce students to fraud examination and economic crime integrating accounting, computer, and criminal justice issues. Students will understand concepts and procedures in auditing, fraud investigation, computer information systems, data management, and organizational (corporate) crime.

Prerequisite courses already in ACC, CIS, and CRJ programs

Course	Accounting	Computer	Criminal Justice
ACC 111	Required	Required supportive	Advised elective
ACC 112	Required	Elective supportive	Advised elective
ECO 102	Required	Elective supportive	Advised elective
CIS 232	Required	Required	Advised elective

Course requirements for minor

1. CRJ 201 Introduction to Criminal Justice
2. CIS 380 Data Management
3. CIS 332 Microcomputer Applications for Business or CIS 480 Management of Computer Information Systems
4. CRJ 315 Organizational Crime
5. ACC 346 Auditing
6. ACC 340/CIS 340/CRJ 340 Fraud Examination and Economic Crime

Recommended sequence

Year	Courses
1	ACC 111, ACC 112, CIS 232
2	CIS 380, CRJ 201, ECO 102
3	CIS 332 or CIS 480, CRJ 315
4	ACC 340, ACC 346

For more information contact Dr. Shih-Jen Kathy Ho at 286-8164 or kh@niagara.edu