James J. Maher, C.M., D.Min., a member of the Vincentian Community, was appointed president of Niagara University on March 13, 2013. He assumed office as Niagara’s 26th president on Aug. 1, 2013.

Father Maher’s presidency marks his second tenure at Niagara University. In the mid-1980s, he served as a member of the Vincentian Service Corps on the university’s then auxiliary campus. As part of the program, individuals devote one year of service to marginalized populations, and live simply in community with fellow volunteers. It was during that service at Niagara that he actively discerned his vocation to the priesthood. Father Maher has also been a member of the Niagara University Board of Trustees for three years, and has served on the Educational Policy and Finance committees.

Before coming to Niagara, Father Maher served at St. John’s University in New York City. While there, he acted as the executive vice president for mission and student services, vice president of student affairs, vice president of university ministry and campus minister, and executive director of the Vincentian Institute for Social Action (VISA).

Father Maher also previously served as chairman of the Board of Directors of the St. John’s Bread & Life Program. During his tenure, he worked very closely with the executive director to expand services to the poor, raising over $1 million, growing the donor base from 800 to 2,500 and completing 10 New York City marathons in the establishment of the Run Against Hunger, leading a team of dedicated runners to raise funds and awareness of hunger and poverty in New York City.

Father Maher earned his doctor of ministry degree from the Immaculate Conception Seminary and Graduate School of Theology. He earned two master’s degrees in theology from the Mary Immaculate Seminary, and a bachelor of arts in sociology from St. John’s University. He has also completed professional leadership and management programs at the Harvard University Institute of Educational Management and Management Development Program, the Stevens Institute and the Scott Academy’s Senior Student Affairs Officers Institute, among others.

Father Maher is a trustee of DePaul University. Father Maher also served on the University and Collegiate Executive Committee of the Fair Labor Association, and was a leading member of the Global Alliance for Workers and Community. Currently, he serves as a provincial consulter for the Eastern Province of the Congregation of the Mission.

Father Maher’s awards and honors include the Pietas Medal from St. John’s University (2009); Madison’s Who’s Who, Outstanding Leader in Education (2008); Student Affairs’ Outstanding Administrator Achievement Award from St. John’s University Student Government Inc. (2005); Epsilon Kappa, Sigma Delta Phi, the National Hispanic Honor Society (2005); Top 100 Irish-Americans in the U.S. by Irish America Magazine (2004); and New Yorker of the Week, New York 1 News (1995).
Jeffrey R. Holzschuh, ’82, ’00 (Hon.)
CHAIRMAN, NIAGARA UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Jeffrey Holzschuh was elected as the chairman of the Niagara University Board of Trustees in 2010. He succeeded Robert Dwyer, who served as chair from 2002 to 2010. A 1982 graduate of Niagara University, Holzschuh began his first term of service on the board of trustees in 1994. Mr. Holzschuh has worked at Morgan Stanley for more than 30 years, where he serves as Chairman of Institutional Securities and member of the firm’s management committee. In addition he serves as chairman of the global power and utility group and co-chairman of the firm’s environmental policy committee, and president of its investment in NGEN venture capital business.

During his career at Morgan Stanley, Holzschuh has been actively involved in many of the industry’s largest mergers and acquisitions, as well as a wide variety of advisory and financing transactions for several of the firm’s key clients. In 1994, the United States Secretary of Energy appointed him to the Electricity Advisory Board and he is a founding member of the U.S. Partnership for Renewable Energy Finance. He also served as chairman of the EEL Wall Street Advisory Group.

Holzschuh is recognized nationally and internationally as an expert in the investment industry. He is a frequent speaker and panelist on industry topics and has been published in several periodicals. As an economics major at Niagara University, Holzschuh served as class president for three years, before being elected as the Student Government Association president his senior year. He captained the Purple Eagles basketball team, and was honored with the Scaffidi Award for his commitment and dedication. During his time as an undergraduate, Holzschuh excelled academically, and was so involved in campus activities that he was awarded the President’s Medal, the university’s highest honor, at his commencement ceremony.

Holzschuh has remained very close to Niagara University. Before being named to the Board of Trustees, he was the founding member and the first chair of the university’s advisory council in New York City. He has been a generous benefactor of the university, and has lived its Vincentian mission through active community service. In recognition of his commitment to his alma mater, Holzschuh was presented with the Dunleavy Award in 1992, an honorary Doctor of Commercial Science in 2000, and the Dean’s Award from the College of Business Administration in 2007.

An avid golfer, he is also president of the Metropolitan Golf Association and its Foundation, and is involved with the United States Golf Association.

Mr. Holzschuh and his wife, Mary Helen, reside in Greenwich, Conn., with their three children.

The University Seal (Coat of Arms)
The official seal of the university presents in symbol its history and purpose. The first name of Niagara University, the College and Seminary of Our Lady of Angels, is signified in the lower half of the coat of arms by the crown, the wings and the crescent moon inscribed in a diamond. The upper half of the coat of arms depicts wavy vertical lines symbolizing the grandeur and power of Niagara Falls. At the top of the shield, on a wreath in purple and white (the university colors) is a golden eagle, indicating the location of the university atop Monteagle Ridge, overlooking the Niagara gorge. The eagle bears a purple diamond displaying a silver heart, the symbol of St. Vincent de Paul, founder of the Congregation of the Mission, the religious community that sponsors the university. The motto at the base of the shield, “Ut Ommes Te Cognoscant” (John 17:3) expresses the purpose of a Niagara education: “That All May Know You.”

The Mace
The mace traces its beginnings to the heavy, armor-breaking club of the knights of the Middle Ages. Often spiked, the mace always had a metal head, usually with an identification mark or symbol of its owner. In the first quarter of the 12th century, masters compared themselves to knights, fighting the ignorance that resulted from a lack of education in the previous Dark Ages. As masters and students organized into studia or guilds, they, like their knight counterparts, used the mace as their corporate symbol, representing high knowledge and power. The elected leader of the masters, the rector, had a servant, who preceded him on formal occasions and carried the huge mace. The presence of the rector and mace were required for any deliberative calling together or convocation of the faculty and students. An allusion to the existence of a bedel and mace at a studia in the Middle Ages is, in general, a sufficiently trustworthy indication that the studia is really a university or stadium generale. Today the mace maintains much of its historic meaning. It is the symbol of the corporate faculty and students, and is used only when they are solemnly convoked to deliberate as a university. As in the Middle Ages, its entrance into the hall at the beginning of a procession still marks the commencement of those who bear the power of higher knowledge.
