We’ve made some exciting changes over the past few weeks! As many of you already know, Alumni Engagement launched a branded new website that will enable us to reach out to alumni more effectively while increasing support for Niagara University: give2gether. If you haven’t checked out the new site, click here to see the future of alumni relations at NU! Do you have a few minutes to spare? Alumni Engagement is looking for alumni who want to share their experience by becoming a mentor or creating student information.

THINGS TO DO
Make a friend:

ALUMNI STORIES
Do you have a few minutes to spare? Alumni Engagement is looking for alumni who want to share their experience by becoming a mentor or creating student information.

Visit the Alumni Engagement team:
• Working with Admissions on college nights in your area
• Assisting in organizing alumni events
• Offering internships at your place of employment
• Honoring your alma mater!

Notes from your Alumni Engagement team:
Do you like to travel? Would you be interested in taking a trip with fellow Alumni? If so, the Alumni Engagement team would like to hear from you!

Five things to know about giving to Niagara University:
1. Would you like trips to have a service focus?
2. Would you like trips to have a religious focus?
3. Would you like trips to have a historical focus?
4. Would you like trips to have a cultural focus?
5. Would you like trips to have a recreational focus?

We are considering re-launching our alumni travel program and are looking for feedback and ideas. Please email Patty McIntosh, assistant director, alumni engagement at pmcintosh@niagara.edu to RSVP and for more information.

Join us from 7-30 to 9 a.m. at Giancarlo’s, 5110 Main St., Williamsville, N.Y., 14221, for these informative sessions:
• Tuesday, March 6: It’s Just Sales, Not Rocket Science
• Thursday, April 1: Seven Habits of Highly Effective Communicators
• Thursday, May 2: Energy Zone! Where Your Energy Flow Is
• Managing Emotions in Business for Positive Results

CU Events for the week:

The Rev. James J. Maher, C.M., Niagara University president, and Dr. Gary Praetzel, dean of the College of Hospitality and Tourism Management, are among the 250 most influential people in Western New York, according to rankings published in Business First. The weekly newspaper published its annual “Power 250” – a list of the 250 men and women who (in its opinion) wield the most power in the eight-county region – on February 7. Read more.

In a related note, Dr. Praetzel retired from his position as dean this spring. However, he will continue to serve NU as special assistant to the president and academic vice president.
