Niagara University recently received a $1 million gift from the Eastern Province of the Congregation of the Mission, which will be used to establish an endowed scholarship fund for incoming students with a demonstrated affinity to the university’s Catholic and Vincentian mission, and incoming freshmen or current NU students who are part of the international Vincentian community.

Click here for photos and videos from a reception thanking the Vincentian community for their support and generosity.

In January, the Rev. James J. Maher, C.M., began a four-year term with the National Alumni Board, representing the university for the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference.

Congratulations to Dr. Delphi Gilkey, dean of Niagara University’s College of Education, who received the Outstanding Educator of the Year award from the National Federation of Catholic Women’s University New York. She was recognized during the NUCF’s annual awards luncheon in January.
