before the game at McMahon’s Public starts at 7:30 p.m., but we’ll get together at the Barclays Center. The game Buffalo Sabres take on the New York Islanders at the Market Garden Brewery. Meet up with fellow Purple Eagles to watch the game.

On Saturday, April 9, from 6:15-8:15 p.m. Register at lmcmahon@niagara.edu to share your news on social media and in photos and videos, and send them to Lisa McMahon, at lmcmahon@niagara.edu or share them on our social media and in the Eagle magazine.

CAMPUS NEWS
A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all the news, visit http://news.niagara.edu/

New Center Launched: The Edward A. Brennan Center for Language, Culture, and Leadership, named for the father of alumnus Edward J. Brennan, ’78, will endeavor to meet the needs of international families and students, and serve English language learners within the global community.

Servino Those in Need: Thirty-seven students volunteered during January to assist the low-income students in underserved sections of Camden, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., and the Republic of Panama as part of the university’s A.B.L.S.C. (Brothers and Sisters in Christ) program.

In addition, six Niagara University students traveled to El Sauco, Nicaragua, during the winter break to construct a house for an impoverished family.

On Tuesday, Feb. 23, at 6:30 p.m. Register at lmcmahon@niagara.edu to share your news on social media and in photos and videos, and send them to Lisa McMahon, at lmcmahon@niagara.edu or share them on our social media and in the Eagle magazine.

If you are interested in being part of our Purple Perks program, offering everything from apparel to travel arrangements exclusively for our Purple Perks members, contact Lisa McMahon, at lmcmahon@niagara.edu or 716.286.8772.

CAMPUS NEWS
A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all the news, visit http://news.niagara.edu/

New Center Launched: The Edward A. Brennan Center for Language, Culture, and Leadership, named for the father of alumnus Edward J. Brennan, ’78, will endeavor to meet the needs of international families and students, and serve English language learners within the global community.

Servino Those in Need: Thirty-seven students volunteered during January to assist the low-income students in underserved sections of Camden, N.J., Philadelphia, Pa., and the Republic of Panama as part of the university’s A.B.L.S.C. (Brothers and Sisters in Christ) program.

In addition, six Niagara University students traveled to El Sauco, Nicaragua, during the winter break to construct a house for an impoverished family.

On Tuesday, Feb. 23, at 6:30 p.m. Register at lmcmahon@niagara.edu to share your news on social media and in photos and videos, and send them to Lisa McMahon, at lmcmahon@niagara.edu or share them on our social media and in the Eagle magazine.

If you are interested in being part of our Purple Perks program, offering everything from apparel to travel arrangements exclusively for our Purple Perks members, contact Lisa McMahon, at lmcmahon@niagara.edu or 716.286.8772.

Join the conversation on social media at lianetours@gmail.com.

Email Lisa McMahon, editor of the Eagle magazine, at lmcmahon@niagara.edu so that we can share your news with your fellow NU alumni!