CAMPUS NEWS

A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all the NU news, visit niagara.edu/news.

In the News: Niagara University’s leader wields a significant amount of influence throughout Western New York, according to rankings published in Business News West. For the third year in a row, the Rev. James J. Maher, C.M., was included among the weekly newspaper’s “most powerful” list (No. 250). “It’s highly gratifying to see (in its opinions) what the most clear in the eight-county region.

The Rev. Kevin G. Creagh, C.M., Niagara University’s vice president for university mission and ministry, has been named to the “Total Education 100” by the 19th Voice newspapers. The “Total Education 100,” now in its fifth year, honors leaders educating of Irish descent.

On the Campus: Edward J. Boznow, 78, Kathryn T. Herndon, Ph.D., and Cheryl A. Aiken, R.N., 77, have been named to the Board of Trustees of Niagara University.

Niagara University has received unanimous approval to have 24,409 square feet of its campus designed as a Stand-Up NY reuse zone. The initiative is viewed on campus as another way for Niagara to solidify its position as a key driver in the continuing economic development of the region.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the Community: A 15-member advisory board will oversee the Niagara Global Tourism Institute, a Niagara University-led initiative to strengthen the regional tourism industry.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the News: Niagara University’s leader wields a significant amount of influence throughout Western New York, according to rankings published in Business News West. For the third year in a row, the Rev. James J. Maher, C.M., was included among the weekly newspaper’s “most powerful” list (No. 250). “It’s highly gratifying to see (in its opinions) what the most clear in the eight-county region.

The Rev. Kevin G. Creagh, C.M., Niagara University’s vice president for university mission and ministry, has been named to the “Total Education 100” by the 19th Voice newspapers. The “Total Education 100,” now in its fifth year, honors leaders educating of Irish descent.

On the Campus: Edward J. Boznow, 78, Kathryn T. Herndon, Ph.D., and Cheryl A. Aiken, R.N., 77, have been named to the Board of Trustees of Niagara University.

Niagara University has received unanimous approval to have 24,409 square feet of its campus designed as a Stand-Up NY reuse zone. The initiative is viewed on campus as another way for Niagara to solidify its position as a key driver in the continuing economic development of the region.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the Community: A 15-member advisory board will oversee the Niagara Global Tourism Institute, a Niagara University-led initiative to strengthen the regional tourism industry.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the News: Niagara University’s leader wields a significant amount of influence throughout Western New York, according to rankings published in Business News West. For the third year in a row, the Rev. James J. Maher, C.M., was included among the weekly newspaper’s “most powerful” list (No. 250). “It’s highly gratifying to see (in its opinions) what the most clear in the eight-county region.

The Rev. Kevin G. Creagh, C.M., Niagara University’s vice president for university mission and ministry, has been named to the “Total Education 100” by the 19th Voice newspapers. The “Total Education 100,” now in its fifth year, honors leaders educating of Irish descent.

On the Campus: Edward J. Boznow, 78, Kathryn T. Herndon, Ph.D., and Cheryl A. Aiken, R.N., 77, have been named to the Board of Trustees of Niagara University.

Niagara University has received unanimous approval to have 24,409 square feet of its campus designed as a Stand-Up NY reuse zone. The initiative is viewed on campus as another way for Niagara to solidify its position as a key driver in the continuing economic development of the region.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the Community: A 15-member advisory board will oversee the Niagara Global Tourism Institute, a Niagara University-led initiative to strengthen the regional tourism industry.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the News: Niagara University’s leader wields a significant amount of influence throughout Western New York, according to rankings published in Business News West. For the third year in a row, the Rev. James J. Maher, C.M., was included among the weekly newspaper’s “most powerful” list (No. 250). “It’s highly gratifying to see (in its opinions) what the most clear in the eight-county region.

The Rev. Kevin G. Creagh, C.M., Niagara University’s vice president for university mission and ministry, has been named to the “Total Education 100” by the 19th Voice newspapers. The “Total Education 100,” now in its fifth year, honors leaders educating of Irish descent.

On the Campus: Edward J. Boznow, 78, Kathryn T. Herndon, Ph.D., and Cheryl A. Aiken, R.N., 77, have been named to the Board of Trustees of Niagara University.

Niagara University has received unanimous approval to have 24,409 square feet of its campus designed as a Stand-Up NY reuse zone. The initiative is viewed on campus as another way for Niagara to solidify its position as a key driver in the continuing economic development of the region.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.

In the Community: A 15-member advisory board will oversee the Niagara Global Tourism Institute, a Niagara University-led initiative to strengthen the regional tourism industry.

It's time for another First Thursday Happy Hour at March's End's East Bar & Grill on Friday, April 3, from 5-7 p.m. Click here for more information and to reserve your spot by March 30.