GIVING TO THE NIAGARA FUND

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!

President's Dinner

Friday, Nov. 13

Seven Brides, Niagara Castle Hotel and Spa

Naples, N.Y.

Enjoy a fun & festive evening in Naples, a winning city of 2015 Best Places to Retire, with a renowned wine & cheese tasting event featuring a variety of wines and cheeses, live entertainment and an auction of items to benefit the Niagara University Community Action Team.

ALUMNI EVENTS

Don’t forget! All fun at the event in photos and videos, and send them to Lisa McMahon at lmcmahon@niagara.edu to share them on social media and in the Eagle magazine.

Saturday, Oct. 26

Ithaca: the Eagle magazine.

Purple Perks: Click on the Cornell Big Reds game at Rulloff’s Restaurant and Bar. Click here for details.

Friday, Nov. 13

Connecticut: Saturday, Nov. 21

SENIOR CLASS OF 2014 / PURPLE EAGLES

Purple Perks: Grab your purple gear and join the Program’s Under-18 Team at USA Hockey

Purple Eagles as they go up against USA Hockey

The Niagara Connection: Annual NU students enjoyed the hospitality of their During the event, a portion of State Route 75 in the Town of Eden has been designated the "Captain John J. Levulis Memorial Highway" in memory of the Niagara University alumnus David Campbell, ’63, who was a featured speaker. Chef Anne Burrell aimed to engage potential NU students with a program that features the talents of NU’s student athletes, faculty, and staff.

Dinner starts at 6 p.m., followed by

Future Fundraiser: Gifts to the Niagara Fund are used on a daily basis to support the university’s academic mission.

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!

CAMPUS NEWS

A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all NU news, visit news.niagara.edu.

Celebrating Alumni: Alumni Weekend 2015 was a fast-packed weekend of activities and events. Several alumni were recognized during the event, including:

Elizabeth Corieri, M.S.Ed.’92, Michelle Longlade, M.S.Ed.’95, and William C. Gehrke, M.D. ’95, and four other honorees during the annual Veterans Heritage Celebration.

Weber ABC, Purple Perks: Click here for more photos of this weekend’s coming event.

LID-GlobalReach: Click here for more information on what’s new in your life! Have you changed careers, gotten married, had a baby recently?

The Niagara Connection: Several NU students enjoyed the hospitality of their homes, which was the site of the event.

Thursday, Oct. 26

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!

President’s Dinner

Friday, Nov. 13

Seven Brides, Niagara Castle Hotel and Spa

Naples, N.Y.

Enjoy a fun & festive evening in Naples, a winning city of 2015 Best Places to Retire, with a renowned wine & cheese tasting event featuring a variety of wines and cheeses, live entertainment and an auction of items to benefit the Niagara University Community Action Team.

ALUMNI EVENTS

Don’t forget! All fun at the event in photos and videos, and send them to Lisa McMahon at lmcmahon@niagara.edu to share them on social media and in the Eagle magazine.

Saturday, Oct. 26

Ithaca: the Eagle magazine.

Purple Perks: Click on the Cornell Big Reds game at Rulloff’s Restaurant and Bar. Click here for details.

Friday, Nov. 13

Connecticut: Saturday, Nov. 21

SENIOR CLASS OF 2014 / PURPLE EAGLES

Purple Perks: Grab your purple gear and join the Program’s Under-18 Team at USA Hockey

Purple Eagles as they go up against USA Hockey

The Niagara Connection: Annual NU students enjoyed the hospitality of their During the event, a portion of State Route 75 in the Town of Eden has been designated the "Captain John J. Levulis Memorial Highway" in memory of the Niagara University alumnus David Campbell, ’63, who was a featured speaker. Chef Anne Burrell aimed to engage potential NU students with a program that features the talents of NU’s student athletes, faculty, and staff.

Dinner starts at 6 p.m., followed by

Future Fundraiser: Gifts to the Niagara Fund are used on a daily basis to support the university’s academic mission.

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!

CAMPUS NEWS

A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all NU news, visit news.niagara.edu.

Celebrating Alumni: Alumni Weekend 2015 was a fast-packed weekend of activities and events. Several alumni were recognized during the event, including:

Elizabeth Corieri, M.S.Ed.’92, Michelle Longlade, M.S.Ed.’95, and William C. Gehrke, M.D. ’95, and four other honorees during the annual Veterans Heritage Celebration.

Weber ABC, Purple Perks: Click here for more photos of this weekend’s coming event.

LID-GlobalReach: Click here for more information on what’s new in your life! Have you changed careers, gotten married, had a baby recently?

The Niagara Connection: Several NU students enjoyed the hospitality of their homes, which was the site of the event.

Thursday, Oct. 26

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!

CAMPUS NEWS

A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all NU news, visit news.niagara.edu.

Celebrating Alumni: Alumni Weekend 2015 was a fast-packed weekend of activities and events. Several alumni were recognized during the event, including:

Elizabeth Corieri, M.S.Ed.’92, Michelle Longlade, M.S.Ed.’95, and William C. Gehrke, M.D. ’95, and four other honorees during the annual Veterans Heritage Celebration.

Weber ABC, Purple Perks: Click here for more photos of this weekend’s coming event.

LID-GlobalReach: Click here for more information on what’s new in your life! Have you changed careers, gotten married, had a baby recently?

The Niagara Connection: Several NU students enjoyed the hospitality of their homes, which was the site of the event.

Thursday, Oct. 26

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!

CAMPUS NEWS

A quick look at what’s happening on the Ridge. To access all NU news, visit news.niagara.edu.

Celebrating Alumni: Alumni Weekend 2015 was a fast-packed weekend of activities and events. Several alumni were recognized during the event, including:

Elizabeth Corieri, M.S.Ed.’92, Michelle Longlade, M.S.Ed.’95, and William C. Gehrke, M.D. ’95, and four other honorees during the annual Veterans Heritage Celebration.

Weber ABC, Purple Perks: Click here for more photos of this weekend’s coming event.

LID-GlobalReach: Click here for more information on what’s new in your life! Have you changed careers, gotten married, had a baby recently?

The Niagara Connection: Several NU students enjoyed the hospitality of their homes, which was the site of the event.

Thursday, Oct. 26

The Niagara Fund is an opportunity for you to make a difference in the quality of education and services the university provides.

Niagara University’s success depends largely on your support from friends and alumni. Gifts to the Niagara Fund are not a one time challenge, but a continuing annual commitment. Annually, the Niagara Fund asks our alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends to support the university.

Please help us make your gift today!