Continuing Education at 716.286.8181.
cdaly@niagara.edu
Sept. 9 at 5:30 p.m. in Dunleavy Hall traveler at a free information session on adventure for the spiritually minded challenges of backpacking in a foreign and mountain lodges, and navigate the in bunks and beds in awesome hostels
The Great Guatemalan Challenge: morales, C.M., president, and Dr. Debra Colley, dean of the College of — education to travelers there, Izyé Jean-Baptiste Pointe du Sable, to determine ways that the university can advance its relationship with the institution.
We’re proud to announce that NU is the only WNY institution to make Princeton Review’s “Best in Northeast” & “Green” lists.
ALUMNI STORIES
John Minerva, ’78: Empowering Others
Through Yoga Niagara alumus John Minerva ’78, took the university’s Vincentian tradition of service in providing an overseas well-balanced Catholic education, one that is grounded in Vincentian values and traditions.
Thank you for all that you do for Niagara University and especially for your continued support of our current and future students.
NIagara Legacy-ALumini of DiStinction/Rotc Military
Hall of Fame Nominations Due Aug. 22 Nominate a talented alumni/alumna for the Niagara Legacy-Alumni of Distinction and the Niagara University ROTC Military Hall of Fame awards, which will be presented during the Alumni Weekend Dinner Celebration, Oct. 11. This year we are celebrating those with graduation class years ending in 1 and 6 and 11. We’re also looking forward to the Alumni Fund Banquet in the Kiernan Center. Click here for more information and to register.
LEARN AND SERVE NIAGARA TURNS 20
In celebration of Learn and Serve Niagara’s 20th anniversary, Oct. 6-11, 2014, has been declared a “Week of Giving.” Under the leadership of Learn and Serve, and in coordination with Campus Ministry, the Levine Institute, the Office of Alumni Engagement, and the entire campus community, a weeklong series of events, including lectures and service activities, will be offered. We encourage all alumni to participate by helping out in an agency in your area or to join in on an campus service project Thursday, Oct. 9, or Saturday, Oct. 11, as part of Alumni Weekend. If you are planning to attend Alumni Weekend, bring a nonperishable good to the registration table or any event towards the Niagara Falls Heart, Love & Soul
dining room and pantry.
SHANNON HODGES TO RUN IN MEMORY OF TWO IN NU’S
Mental Health Counseling Program Shannon Hodge, an associate professor of counseling at NU, will participate in the Mighty Niagara half marathon on Sept. 20 to raise money toward the Rev. Michael T. Marusink, C.M., ’80 and Morgan C. Brooks, Ph.D.
Memorial Scholarship he recently established. The scholarship will fund tuition for graduate students and graduate student professional development in the clinical mental health counseling program. For more information about the scholarship, contact Shannon at 716.286.8328 or shodges@niagara.
edu
JOIN THE CONVERSATION!