

Krieg Tidemann

Niagara University
Department of Economics and Finance
354G Bisgrove Hall
Niagara University, NY 14109

Email: ktidemann@niagara.edu
Website: ktidemann.wordpress.com
Office: (716) 286-8158
Citizenship: USA

Employment

Niagara University

Assistant Professor of Economics, Tenure-Track, Aug 2019-present

Education

Syracuse University

Ph.D., Economics, May 2019

Marquette University

M.S., Applied Economics, 2014

B.A., Economics and Political Science, 2013

Fields of Interest

Labor Economics

Public Economics

Urban and Regional Economics

Publications

Medicaid, Earnings, and Heterogeneous Treatment Effects:

Evidence from the Oregon Health Insurance Experiment

The B.E. Journal of Economic Analysis and Policy, 21(4),

October 2021: 1319-1345.

Three Ethical Criteria for Evaluating the Humanity of Economic Systems

Krieg Tidemann and Kristine Principe

Faith & Economics, 76, Fall 2020: 43 – 58.

Under Review

Transformative Reimagination: A Framework for a Vincentian

with Madhurima Bhattacharyay and Kristine Principe

Patrick Primeaux Best Paper Award Winner, 29th International Vincentian

Business Ethics Conference, October 2022

Under review at Journal of Vincentian Social Action, December 2022

Minimum Wages, Spatial Equilibrium, and Housing Rents

Revisions requested at Southern Economic Journal, December 2020

Works in Progress

The Contribution of the Minimum Wage to Racial Gaps in Female Hourly Wages and Earnings

A Moral Equilibrium: The Ethical Duties on Participants in Market Exchange with Kristine Principe

Experimental Evidence on the Impact of Small Groups within Introductory Economics Classes

Presentations	29th International Vincentian Business Ethics Conference October 2022 Transformative Reimagination: A Framework for a Vincentian College of Business with Madhurima Bhattacharyay and Kristine Principe
	28th International Vincentian Business Ethics Conference October 2021 Value-Driven Action: A Framework for a Vincentian College of Business with Madhurima Bhattacharyay and Kristine Principe
	28th International Vincentian Business Ethics Conference October 2021 A Moral Equilibrium: The Ethical Duties on Participants in Market Exchange with Kristine Principe
	2021 American Enterprise Institute Initiative on Faith and Public Life Faculty Retreat January 2021 Three Ethical Criteria for Evaluating the Humanity of Economic Systems with Kristine Principe
Teaching Experience	Department of Economics and Finance, Niagara University Principles of Microeconomics (ECO102): Fall 2019 - 2022; Summer 2020 - 2022, Spring 2021 - 2023 Principles of Macroeconomics (ECO103): Spring 2020 - 2021 Intermediate Microeconomics (ECO305): Fall 2021 - 2022 Economics of the Public Sector (ECO330): Spring 2023 Labor Economics (ECO370): Spring 2020, 2022 Applied Econometrics (ECO440): Spring 2020 - 2023 Economics for Managers (ECO525): Fall 2019 - 2022 Econometrics (ECO640): Spring 2020 - 2023
	Affiliations
	American Economic Association Southern Economic Association
	Skills
	Stata, Python, R, MATLAB