Film Studies Minor

The film studies minor consists of five courses. Of those five courses, only two of them can come from your major.

Required Course:

CMS 285: Introduction to Film Studies

This is an introduction to the interpretation of cinema. Students learn the cultures, practices, genres, directors, theories, technologies, politics, and economics that have influenced the development of motion pictures.

Electives (choose 4)

CMS 221/THR 222: Screenwriting

CMS 345: Video Production

CMS 352: Documentary Film

CMS 353: Film and Culture

CMS 355: Understanding Television

CMS 360: Short Filmmaking

CMS 375/WMS 375: Women and Film

CMS 401: The Horror Film

ENG 318: Multiethnic American Literature and Film

ENG 367: Global Shakespeare on Film

FRE 319: Francophone Cinema

PHI 328: Philosophy of Film

REL 399: The Bible and Film

SPA 319: Through a Different Lens: Latin America in Film

THR 120: Introduction to Theatre Design

THR 225: Sound for the Theatre

THR 425: Directing